Preface

We live in a time when we need to be more prayerful than we used to pray. Apostle Paul commanded that we should pray without ceasing. Prayer is not just for communication with God but also an adventure that empower us to get great results in life. Many have suggested that why should we pray to get results when there are infidels who command great results without praying. It is so tragic that many are ignorant of spiritual dynamics. They failed to realize that even though it appears as though those infidels don't pray, it is of high importance to see that they have people who pray for them secretly. Many of those infidels have religious clerics on their payroll monthly.

As believers, you have been given the privilege by God to make your desire known unto Him. He also gives you the privilege to make your demand. Don't be deceived, there are forces contending with the success and greatness of men.

Prayer Force (volume one) is one of the many volumes on concentrated prayers to help you fight the good fight of faith. This volume deals with breakthrough and speed. The outcome of all the prayers here should be speedy accomplishment that comes out of your life. The prayer points in this book are birth during retreats and personal fellowship with the Lord. I have seen the results of some of these prayers in my life. I believe it is time for your to access your breakthrough and speed.

May the Lord grants you grace to be diligent and consistent in prayers till you get your note of victory. Amen!

Recommendation

1. You are counseled to add fasting to these prayers and create special time for the prayers.
2. You can decide to go on three days or seven days of prayer with fasting on either breakthrough or speed. And if your need is the two, you can decide to concentrate on the two.
3. You are admonished to create time to read the scripture and trust the Holy Spirit to grant you illumination. As you read, watch out for God's promises to you in the scripture. Don't just talk to God, ensure you listen to Him to talk to you. It is best you permit Him to talk to you through the Scripture. Be assured that whatever He shows you becomes your personal property. Ownership of what the word says becomes yours when your eyes is opened to see what is said from what is written.
4. Ensure you have a picture of something or areas in your mind where you are trusting God for breakthrough or speed. For example, if yours is a business, you must have a picture of your business in your mind as you pray and begin to imagine the kind of breakthrough or speed you want. When the right picture of what represent your breakthrough or speed is formed, you must be bold to make demand of that picture from God. You must never doubt even though the picture is bigger for you to accomplish, be bold to say it to God and you will see how events and people will be orchestrated in your favour.

5. Ensure that after the prayers, you create time to praise God and appreciate Him for what He has done. You must not just be prayerful but be praise full!

Breakthrough

Breakthrough

Breakthrough refers to movement into the new and next. It's moving beyond the old level into the new level. The real truth is that breakthrough is first internal before it is external. Every breakthrough you see is actually a reflection of breakthrough in the mind of someone or some people.

The truth is that the barriers you are trying to break are not external or in the spiritual realm. They are in your mind. Thoughts are the barriers you want to break. Whenever Satan wants to put a barrier or strongholds on your path, what he does is to frame and send certain thoughts to your mind that when accepted by you as a perspective or ideology, you are then hindered from moving forward because the thoughts - ideologies and perspectives have well become a barrier that needs to be broken.

The way you breakthrough is that by the spirit of God, your mind is filled and inundated with right thoughts, ideas, strategies or instructions that when implemented or obeyed, you will experience a great movement. When we talk about breakthrough, what comes to the mind of many is some barricade or big wall as barriers like the wall of Jericho in the spiritual realm, but the real fact is that what they are dealing with are both in the spiritual realm and in their mind. The proof that you have won in the spiritual realm is that light - right thoughts will fill your mind. You are then saturated with wisdom and strategies to move from where you are now to where you need to be.

Beyond the breakthrough of the mind, there are deep matters that are not issues of the mind but some spiritual forces in the spirit realm. It is possible for you to have the right wisdom, ideas, strategies but not breakthrough. Yes! I have seen it happened. Now, I want to talk as an apostle and prophet. This is a deep spiritual matter. A teacher, mentor or life coach may not understand this dimensions. There are people who know the right application to a matter and implemented it, yet there's no result to show. In this case, oppression and affliction could have set in. A man who is oppressed or afflicted by the devil doesn't need breakthrough of the mind first. He first need to prevail over the oppressors in the spiritual realm and after he has won, he now need to focus on the mind. Spiritual warfare is real, if you have never been under an attack, you may not understand.

I learned from inspiration and motivational preachers that we need to learn, get knowledge and wisdom. I made up my mind to do it and seriously, it was a great adventure that I will encourage everyone to do. You must read books, listen to teachings and watch videos to just keep learning. There was a year, I read one thousand, two hundred and thirty one books. I read like a computer. I didn't read like a CEO but read from page to page. I grew mentally and knew too much to the extent that I was confident that I knew thing. I could talk on any subject matter. I read about medicine, law, politics, business, administration, science, technology, ministry, governance, banking, economics, etc. I was so sure that I could speak on any subject. I had lots of plans that year but didn't implement up to 10 percent. The following year, I also had visions and goals. I was very strategic that I knew it would be successful. Unfortunately, I didn't accomplish it up to ten percent. The same thing happened the third year. One day, I was just tired of everything. I had much knowledge but my results doesn't match my mental knowledge.

One morning, I rose up and stopped reading and started praying. In life, it is result that counts and matter not knowledge. Oppression can make a wise man mad. Before that morning, I have been praying for years. There were times I prayed for ten hours, eight hours, two hours, etc. I had built consistency in prayer since my University days. But that morning, the prayer gear changed. I was desperate for change, prosperity and breakthrough. Suddenly, I began to pray all kinds of prayer. All these happened in my privacy. After a while, I sat down to check the scripture and the Lord opened my eyes to the effect of affliction, adversity and oppression. You can dress nice, be excellent in appearance and yet be afflicted and oppressed. Get this very well: An anointed man can be oppressed and afflicted, Samuel had anointed David at seventeen, yet, as David grew, he cried to God to deliver him out of affliction. Before I came to the realization that I was afflicted and oppressed, I had walked in miracles. God had healed many sick people by my hand. I have ministered to cripples, deaf, paralyzed etc and they were all healed, yet I was suffering and didn't breakthrough. Everyone loved me, some even desired to be like me because they loved my appearance, wisdom and how God often work through me in the miraculous, but they didn't know what I was passing through. It was great hardship for me. All I could say I had during these period was food, clothes, fare to travel across places for meeting and services. At a time during the process, I ran into debt. I invested money to a business that ran at loss. It wasn't because I didn't have right knowledge about the business but things didn't just work out. During all of these, I would still go to places to minister, preach, teach and people would be blessed. On many occasions, by God's anointing on me, many people have received financial breakthrough and stability. Many thank God for me and shared testimonies but I kept thinking about my life, why would others be blessed through me and I was like this? Why would the grace and anointing I carry work for others but not work for me! It was during that time I knew something was wrong and I got into prayers.

During one of those intense prayers for speed and breakthrough, God told me "stop calling affliction a process." I was shocked! Then I realized that many of the things we call process are affliction and oppression. Now, process has an expired date but not affliction and oppression. Satanic and demonic forces are not ready to live you to advance in life. The Bible says "the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing." I hope you know that the yoke came because the anointing was there. The anointing will not come to break the yoke. The anointing is there already, it's the yoke that came to torment the carrier of the anointing because he has the anointing. The purpose of the anointing is to set the captive free. So, as long as you have the anointing, you can set the captives free. So, the yoke will come on you so that you will not think of setting the captives free but of setting yourself free. The devil will afflict you with hardship that will almost make you to forget you are anointed. I had always thought I was only going through process but for how long? Yes, God was taking me through process of growing but the devil was also afflicting me.

It was in prayers that I dislodge affliction and oppression. It was during prayers that I discovered the secret behind the rising of many. I looked at some people who are doing exploit and prospering in life. I see that they didn't seem to know too much but they have great results that validate that they know too much even if they don't know too much. I concluded that reading, watching is to give you information, instructions, knowledge, wisdom, etc but prayer is to get you result. Do you want result in your life? Then pray! I have realized that those given to much prayers command much results. Whenever you see a prayerful person whose life doesn't command any result, it could be that such lack knowledge or instruction of what to do after prayer, lazy or still going through the process of transformation.

Prayers here is not referring to praying in tongues but praying specific and concentrated prayers. The prayer points here is what is referred to as concentrated prayers. This is when you concentrate your mind on a particular aspect and you begin to pray all kinds of prayers – you request, command, enforce, etc. With these prayers, I believe you will breakthrough and rise with speed.

Speed

Speed

Whatever moves forward respond to the law of motion, whatever fly respond to the law of aerodynamics or lift. There is speed in motion and lift.

What is Speed?

Speed is the rate at which someone or something moves or happens. It is the quality of being quick or rapid. Speed is the compelling ability to make things and events happen faster.

Speed is a possibility in everyone's life and everyone will always need it to override the shortness of decades each have to fulfill destiny on earth. With the existence and advance of technology, certain things that takes time in the past no longer take much time again. Some tasks that took four days to be completed by humans can now be done in less than an hour by computers. This is speed!

In our lives, we need speed. Just because you won't be on earth forever is enough for you to pray for speed. It is very painful to labour for years only for you to discover at old age that you could have accomplished all your labour within months or few years.

Sometimes, delay from the forces of darkness have held many down. It is good to think, plan, strategize, but the truth is that nobody under oppression or affliction can make progress. The easiest way to conquer delay is speed. If someone was delayed by Satan or hindered for seven years, do you now expect that person to wait for the next seven years to accomplish the task. That's wrong idea! In that case, we need a supernatural force that will help such person to do in few months or one year what he or she should have done seven years ago. That person definitely needs a power that conquers time and accomplishes fast.

I remember how I prayed for speed sometimes ago. I came to a consciousness and understanding that the devil had delayed me for so long. From personal experience, I can boldly tell you that God answers prayer. I remember how I did in one week what I could not do in more than six months. I remember how I reached some places within one day the exact places I tried to reach for over three years. Today, I am a proof that speed works – divine speed works like magic. It takes you to places fast, causes you to meet relevant people fast. Yes, favour makes things happen but speed makes it happen fast. It's not just enough for things to happen but that it must happen fast.

Scriptures reveal to us how Elijah ran ahead of the chariot of king Ahab after the the hand of the Lord came upon him. We also see how Joseph was brought before king Pharoah one day and from prisoner, he emerged the prime minister over the world power nation – Egypt. That's an inexplicable speed.

Let me differentiate the difference between grace for speed and anointing for speed. Grace is displayed in knowledge while anointing is displayed in power. The grace for speed is the knowledge of things to do that will make do for speed in your life. When these knowledge are implemented, you begin to get results cheaply and speedily. There is an anointing for speed. This is a spiritual empowerment for speed. This is beyond knowledge, it's a force on you that compels events, situations, people to work together for your speed. Grace for speed will push you to do things that make do for speed but the anointing will compel others to align and respond for your speed.

It is time you enjoyed the supply of grace and release of the anointing. The prayer points here are to attend to your day to day living and your spiritual satisfaction. I admonish you to take this prayers seriously for maximum delivery. This is not just a book but answer to your real need. Be blessed as you pray!
